MCT HISTORY

Mixed Company Theatre produces innovative, socially relevant drama as a tool for positive change, in an engaging and entertaining way. For the last 31 years we have been committed to community engaged theatre, both in creation and in presentation. Mixed Company Theatre (MCT) develops workshops and presents original Forum Theatre focusing on educational and community issues. A globally recognized Centre of Forum Theatre since 1992, MCT today partners with schools, workplaces and community organizations across Canada and around the world.

EVENT SUMMARY

MCT's will celebrate its Anniversary with an interactive fundraising event! This evening will be a combination of interactive fundraising games and a preview of our Forum Theatre productions. We will present MCT's up-coming season, including Mixed Messages, a performance concerning sexual consent, scenes from our Inter-Generational project with teens and older adults and possibly a reading of Frenemies our anti-bullying production. These presentations will allow the guests to see what their donations are supporting and how our methodologies help give a voice to many different communities. This event will help MCT raise funds in a dynamic and entertaining way.
