Four Theatre Companies Team Up to Announce Five Ways to GO GREEN ...One Day Only!

Toronto, April 6, 2010 – “We have now come to the highlight of the show: A sneak peek, the world premiere of the 5 rules for going GREEN!” announces Jasper, starting Morro and Jasp GO GREEN ...with a Twist!

Mixed Company Theatre partners with Up your Nose and In your Toes Productions, Little Monsters and The Lower Ossington Theatre to present this engaging and entertaining look at being environmentally friendly. Children and adults will delight in loveable and laughable clowns Morro and Jasper as they turn assumptions about being green on their heads, teaching that every little bit of positive effort makes a difference.

Winners of the 2008 ‘Outstanding Production for Young Audiences’ and ‘Outstanding Ensemble’ from Now Magazine, our dynamic duo embark on a journey to reduce their ecological footprint. Together, they struggle to learn how they can make changes in their daily lives and learn that, although not always easy, being environmentally friendly is certainly important and curiously rewarding.
