Prepare for I.M.P.A.C.T

Toronto, August 4, 2009 - I.M.P.A.C.T is the new, youth-oriented committee that has been working hard over the summer towards its vision to provide young people with a creative outlet to initiate social change. Individuals Making Positive Artistic Change Together will educate and empower communities through Forum Theatre that is a reflection of the youth the committee represents.

I.M.P.A.C.T will be achieving its vision for social change through presentations that focus on relationship abuse motivated by economics. The committee has already seen lots of activity. I.M.P.A.C.T has been given support from the 519 Community Centre, connected with the Youth Employment Services YES, and welcomed Eglinton Hill BIA and Toronto Police to participate in the development process.

I.M.P.A.C.T is currently in the creative stages of development and will be meeting every Wednesday for the duration of the summer, as well as during other scheduled activities like getting the word out on Mixed Company Theatre.
