FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Three Students Mix it up at Mixed Company Theatre this Summer

Toronto, June 29, 2009 - Mixed Company Theatre is buzzing as a future doctor, lawyer and teacher begin working with the company.

Through Canada Summer Jobs, an initiative that provides funding for not-for-profit organizations to create high-quality summer job opportunities for students between the ages of 15 and 30, three students will be putting their skills to work for positive change.

Each of the students' talents have been matched with a role for them:

An OISE student will create anti-bullying lesson plans and assist with youth outreach as the Youth Partnership Liaison.

A JD/MBA Candidate at Osgoode Hall uses her Arts and Media Specialization and experience to help plan the upcoming Mixed Company Theatre 25 Anniversary and Symposium.

A Science and Physical Health Education and Doctorate of Medicine Candidate uses her research skills as the new Research and Development Assistant.

All three students will be working full-time at Mixed Company Theatre for the duration of the summer.

Mixed Company Theatre produces innovative, socially relevant drama as a tool to educate, engage and empower for positive change.
